OUR STORY

Vision and Ambition for the Future

To go beyond meeting immediate needs by fostering long-term inclusion, resilience, and prosperity for all newcomers and their families.

Mission

To enhance the quality of life for newcomers and all Canadians.

Values

Accountability - Trust comes from taking responsibility for our actions, following through on commitments and upholding integrity along the way.

Compassion - Care, empathy, and understanding build lasting connections that positively impact lives.

Empowerment - People thrive when they have the information, tools, support, and opportunities to share their own path.

Interconnectedness - We are all connected - our collective progress and well-being depend on the relationships we build with each other and our community.

Who are we?

Newcomer Centre is a government-funded, registered Canadian charity. We help newcomers find work, learn English, get settled, connect to community, and thrive.

Newcomer Centre was established in 1981 under the direction of a board consisting of appointees from the First Mennonite, Holyrood Mennonite, Faith Mennonite and Lendrum Mennonites Churches to walk with newcomers in their settlement and integration process.

Each year, we serve newcomers from more than 100 countries of origin. Our staff represent a diverse range of languages, faiths, and cultures. Many of us were newcomers who accessed these services ourselves or can relate to clients' experiences.

Settlement Services

The Newcomer Centre offers group and one-on-one support to inform and guide newcomer families in accessing resources and services such as:

- Affordable and subsidized housing, income supports and financial services
- Legal aid and health care
- Understanding and accessing government forms, documents and identification
- Affordable transportation and recreation services
- Connection to other community agencies and services

Case Management

A newcomer family or individual typically works with a Case Management Counsellor for 12 - 18 months to develop an action plan to reduce identified settlement and integration barriers. With the support of the Case Management Counsellor or a team-based process, newcomers take manageable steps forward in addressing those barriers.

Newcomers are eligible to access enhanced settlement if they are:

- Immigrant Albertans who are Permanent Residents of Canada
- Refugees under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act with Convention

Citizenship Application Info Sessions

Newcomer Centre offers group information sessions for first-time Canadian citizenship applicants. Sessions are held in-person on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 1PM - 3PM MST in person at 10170 112 Street NW.

After the info session, we can book a personal follow-up session if you're interested.

We are navigating a complex system with a simple goal: to meet people where they are and help them get where they need to go with dignity, clarity and compassion.

Rainbow Refuge Program

Newcomer Centre is here to help LGBTQ+ refugees and newcomers! We offer individualized, holistic services with an LGBTQ+ perspective to guide LGBTQ+ newcomers in their settlement process and address their specific needs and to reduce the number of times a client has to share their story, prevent them from being bounced around, and to help them navigate community safely, and connect to LGBTQ+ friendly services.

We also provide support to:

- Find safe housing
- Access health care – including quick access to hormones for trans clients
- Find affirming spiritual communities
- Look for gender-affirming employers
- Address homophobic incidents
- Connect clients to therapists who are experienced working with LGBTQ+ individuals and are familiar with immigration processes so they can provide private, personalized, therapeutic support.

LGBTQ+ Refugee Support & Welcome Network

The LGBTQ+ Refugee Support & Welcome Network, in partnership with the Pride Centre of Edmonton, is also here to help new LGBTQ+ claimants to Canada and guide you through the basis of claim process, answer questions, and support you in your settlement journey.

We can assist you to:

- Find a lawyer and prepare for your hearing
- Apply for a work permit
- Meet new friends
- And more

We have pioneered support for LGBTQ refugees and positioned Edmonton internationally as a community that welcomes people who are persecuted for their sexual orientation or gender identity in their country of origin.

Over 300 LGBTQ+ newcomers found their voices and freedom of expression through our services.

Therapeutic & Counselling Services

Newcomers to a new country face challenges that can lead to high stress, isolation, role shifts, financial difficulties, marital problems, and parent-child conflict. They may also carry trauma from their past, leading to PTSD, depression, and anxiety, which can impede their integration. Newcomer Centre provides community-focused therapy and counselling to address these challenges.

Newcomer Centre's therapeutic services team members are:

- Highly-trained psychologists, licensed therapists and social workers
- Trauma-informed therapy practitioners who consider cultural perspectives, immigration processes, and gender expectations and expressions

How does the program work?

- To overcome barriers to accessing services, we offer therapeutic services in different Edmonton office locations, schools, and homes (when feasible).
- Interpretation services can also be made available.
- We recognize that building resilience and overcoming trauma and loss includes more than traditional therapy. Our therapeutic services are embedded in the larger agency; therapists connect newcomers to social workers and other services to enhance their resilience and ability to function in their new environment.
- NOTE: sessions are by appointment only. No walk-ins.

Fees and eligibility:

- There is no fee/cost for Newcomer Centre's therapeutic and counselling services.
- Immigrants and refugees born outside of Canada, regardless of the length of stay in Canada (immigration status), are eligible.
- Children under 18 years of age of parents born outside of Canada are also eligible.

Locations:

- Downtown at 10170 – 112 Street NW
- Gupta Newcomer Resource Centre – 11713 – 82 Street NW
- Online services are available as well.

Through counselling, nature walks, gardening, conversation circles, tactile activities, music and art, over 400 newcomers took firm steps towards care for their mental health and were equipped with tools to build upon their progress.

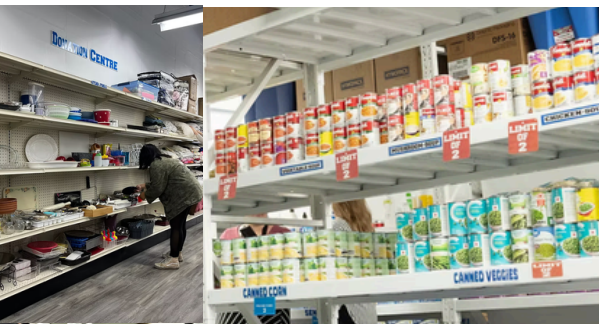

C5 organizations support and empower:

- Indigenous individuals and families
- Some of the most economically, socially, and culturally marginalized children, youth and adults in the Edmonton area
- Newcomers, immigrants and refugees
- Vulnerable children and their families
- Teen parents

The C5 brings many supports into one place.

Life and living in Edmonton can be complicated at times to navigate, and families are often unable to access available supports. The C5 collaborative is dedicated to breaking down those navigational barriers so community members can get exactly where they need to go.

C5 Northgate Hub and Community Market:

Aims to allow our community members to shop for food with dignity, and feed their families based on their own cultural preferences and values, for free.
